

LSAW 2010 CONFERENCE - STUDENT VOLUNTEER REGISTRATION FORM

Student volunteers are needed for the Land Surveyors' Association of Washington 2010 Annual Conference in Tacoma, Washington March 3--6, 2010. Volunteers will assist in monitoring workshop sessions and social events, and for a variety of other tasks. With a commitment of at least 8 volunteer hours, volunteers will receive complimentary registration for the entire conference and lunch on their assigned day. You will have the opportunity to attend educational workshops and sessions, view exhibits, and interact with industry leaders and future employers. Volunteers assisting at meal functions will receive that meal. Volunteers are responsible for their own transportation, lodging and other expenses. Many LSAW chapters however provide funding for such expenses.

Volunteer positions are limited, however the conference will attempt an equitable allocation of available volunteer positions between all responding educational facilities. Volunteers will be assigned a red vest identifying them as volunteers and a dress code will apply (light colored top and dark colored pants or skirt). The conference reserves the right to reject as a volunteer any individuals deemed unacceptable by reason of appearance or manner.
